Dear Miss Weston

I thank you for your Liberty Bell, & more for the ~~considerate~~ kindness which so readily pardoned my delinquency as to the Fair duties. There still perhaps for what you say about my Gleaner. To have obtained it has cost me nothing, in my position here or elsewhere; but had it cost a great deal it would have been well worth it, in view of the valuable goods it has brought me from men & women whose good opinion I value not a little

Yours Sincerely & respectfully

J. W. Higginson.
